Memorandum, to shew the Expenditure of the Reverend Wm. Mackenzie, Rector of Smarden, on necessary repairs, in, and about the Parsonage House and Premises at Smarden –

1794 Paid Henry Ottaway for fitting up the Pantries and Cellars and other necessary repairs about the House, before he entered it £89:0:0.

1795 Paid Wm. Randal of Maidstone for ornamental Shrubs and 2 ks?etc. almost all round the Glebe, tastefully disposed £60:0:0

1802 Paid Mr. Shoebridge of Tenterden for building, by Contract, the additional End to the House etc.
£100:0:0

1809 Paid Mr. Argles of Maidstone for Brass Branches to light the Pulpit and Desks etc. in the Church
£7:10.0

1811 Paid Plumber for sinking a Pump in the Washouse, Well 24 feet Drop, 1700 Bricks, and containing 16 feet of excellent Water, almost the sum of £20:0:0
N.B. This is considered a great acquisition, as there never was a Pump at the Parsonage before, and the water in summer used to be very forbidding out of the Pond before the House

1812 Paid before this Period in necessary Repairs yearly on an average to Bricklayers and Carpenters etc. £10 per annum
£180.0.0
£456.18.0
